

Charge for Breakout Sessions (1)

Mission:

Discuss the proposed component of the GGOS Organization

Answer the following questions:

- Do we need the proposed component in the GGOS organization and why?
- What are the mission, tasks, and functions for the component?
- Are there other components that already do these task (Services) or interferences?
- What output do we expect from the component?
- What is the appropriate form of organization (WG, Bureau, Coordinator, ...)?
- Do we need more than one form (e.g. WG and Bureau) ?
- Who should be represented in the component or/and how many persons are needed?
- To whom should the component report?
- To whom should the component link (international organizations)?
- How can the activities be financed?
- When and how should the component be established?

Charge for Breakout Sessions (2):

What to keep in mind:

- The considerations in Chapter 10
- The relevant recommendations in Chapter 11
- The white paper
- The “business” model

What do we expect as a result of the Breakout sessions?

- A brief summary of the discussions for the minutes
- A presentation by the rapporteur
- If applicable, a draft Call for Proposals
- Any other output relevant for the Retreat
